

How will I know there is a live meeting/lesson with my class?

Login to Google Classroom using your username and password. If you do not know these or have forgotten these, contact your class teacher who will be able to help.

Staff will post on the class stream to tell you that meetings/lessons with your class have been added to your calendar.

Stream

To access your calendar click on the waffle in the top right corner.

Then click on the 'Calendar' icon.

Calendar

This will open your calendar. You will then be able to see which meetings/lessons have been scheduled for your class.
